

ANNOUNCING LCCR'S NEW TUESDAY LEGAL SERVICES CLINIC

Ashley's dream is to be a nurse. While she's led a difficult life, she is working hard to make a fresh start. But, as a result of a conviction from years ago, she has been unable to move forward with her life and obtain her nursing assistant credentials. Ashley needs help achieving her dream.

Our new Tuesday Legal Services Clinic will help clients like Ashley who are working to overcome barriers to employment and housing resulting from past contact with the criminal justice system. The Clinic will offer a range of services, from brief services to full-scope representation. Volunteers will receive training/mentoring, develop critical skills, and help clients rebuild their lives.

Issue Areas

- Occupational licensing applications/denials
- Criminal background reporting violations
- Housing and employment law issues
- Driver's license suspensions
- Criminal records remedies

Legal Skills

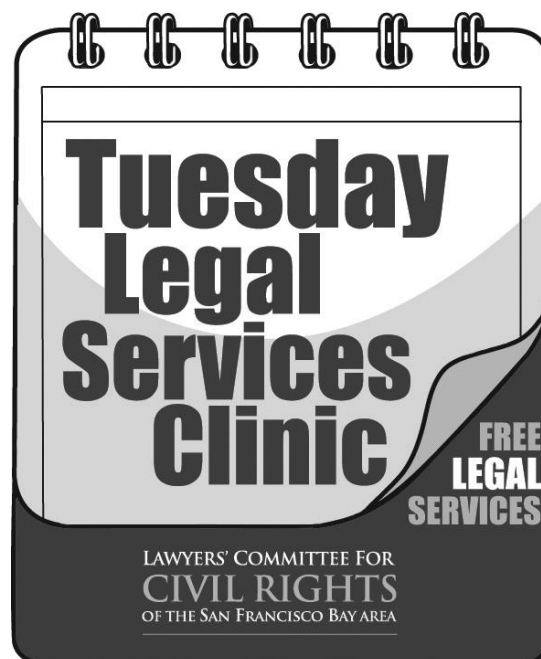

- Representing clients at hearings
- Drafting briefs and declarations
- Negotiation skills
- Issue spotting and legal advice
- Case planning and management

Volunteer Opportunities

- Volunteers will receive in-depth training and mentoring from experienced attorneys
- Volunteers can help at two community-based organizations:

Goodwill Industries
1580 Mission St. (and Van Ness St.)
1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month
2 – 5 pm

Mo'MAGIC Neighborhood Collaborative
1294 Fillmore St.
4th Tuesday of the month
5 – 8 pm

For more information please contact:
Paul Chavez, Pro Bono Coordinator / Senior Attorney
Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of the San Francisco Bay Area
pchavez@lccr.com / 415.543.9444 x221