

The Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Reed Smith LLP invite you to attend lunch and a documentary film screening honoring the women and children of Camino Seguro

"RECYCLED LIFE"

Academy Award Nominee - Best Documentary Short

"WARNING: BY WATCHING THIS DOCUMENTARY YOU HEREBY FORFEIT THE RIGHT TO EVER COMPLAIN ABOUT YOUR LIFE AGAIN." - Dan Sneider, Entertainment Weekly

Moderator

Jayne E. Fleming, Pro Bono Counsel, Reed Smith LLP

Camino Seguro (Safe Passage) works with the poorest at-risk children of families working in the Guatemala City garbage dump. Within a safe and caring environment, the organization provides a comprehensive and integrated program that fosters hope, good health, educational achievement, self-sufficiency, self esteem and confidence. The Organization's primary focus is on creating opportunities and dignity through power of education.

Lunch and Film Screening

When: Tuesday , June 30, 2009, 12:00 - 1:30 p.m.

Where: Reed Smith LLP

2 Embarcadero Ctr., Floor 21

San Francisco, CA

There is no cost to attend the lunch and film screening. People who wish to support Camino Seguro may participate in a silent auction before and after the screening. Donations will be used to purchase clothing and school supplies for the women and children living and working in the Guatemala City dump. Volunteers will hand-deliver these items to Camino Seguro in July.